Gay Mykonos – the best gay hotels, bars,
clubs & more

Like most Greek islands, Mykonos comes alive with crowds during the months of June through September. Mykonos Town is the main transport hub into the island and the area most will stay. It's a pretty place, with houses painted white to reflect the strong sun, with the characteristic blue church domes.

General Tips

The high season of the island is from June to September but stick to the end of May to the beginning of July if you prefer to avoid the crowds. If you're looking to go for the party scene, one of the most popular and biggest gay events is XLSIOR Mykonos described as Europe's hottest annual summer gay circuit festival. It's also worth noting that due to its popularity as a tourist destination, Mykonos is quite expensive compared to other islands or regions of Greece.

Transportation & Airport Transfer

The easiest way to get from the Mykonos airport to the town is by taxi for about 30€, which takes about 10-15 minutes. However, there is a cheaper option by taking the bus for about 1.60€. It goes from Mykonos Airport to the southern bus terminal of Fabrika in Mykonos Town.

The roads on the island are underdeveloped and not made for pedestrians, but it's fairly easy to get around by public bus. However, most visitors opt to rent their own vehicle such as a scooter or ATV which is a great option if you need to get around on your own. There are mobile apps for calling taxis, but popular ridesharing apps like Uber are not available in Mykonos.

Gay Hotels in Mykonos

There are a few gay hotels in Mykonos along with many gay-friendly options.

Luxury

Bill & Co Suites and Lounge – offers a luxury environment close to popular landmarks, such as Church of Saint George and Virgin of St. Rosary, and restaurants including Joanna's Nikos Place, D'Angelo Mykonos, and M-eating. This hotel also features a concierge, room service, a pool and free breakfast that are available on-site.

Mykonos Grand Hotel and Resort – this gay-friendly resort occupies 20 acres of landscaped gardens, whitewashed buildings and terraces for a perfect holiday setting. ## Budget

Paradise Beach Camping – probably the most affordable option on the island. It's located near the famous Paradise Beach on the south side of Mykonos. They offer bungalows for 2-3 people, which are rooms from wood, with a small private shower and toilet, air-conditioning, mini fridge, daily cleaning, and buffet breakfast included. There are also beach cabins for 1-2 people, which are small wooden rooms, simple, lockable, with fan, electricity, linen, daily cleaning, common shower and toilet.

Paraga Beach Hostel & Camping – has a pool where you can relax or dance just above sea level, listen to the best early DJ sets before a crazy night and meet friends from all around the world. It's located just half minute from Paraga Beach. You can choose between deluxe 3 bed private ensuites, bungalows with shared bathroom, tent rental beds, or dorms with 6-8 beds.

Apartments

There are many sites for apartment rentals in Mykonos, with AirBnB probably being one of the most popular. Prices are generally comparable to budget hotels, especially if you're willing to get a room in a shared apartment. Book AirBnB →

There are even a few LGBT-oriented booking sites like misterb&b with listings from gay hosts for gay guests where you can either rent a whole apartment or a private room in a shared apartment. Understanding Mykonos' gay scene is much more easily done with the help of a local and apartment sharing is one of the best ways to meet someone living in the city who knows how things work, where and when are the best nights to go out, and what places to eat at and which to avoid.

Sightseeing & Activities in Mykonos

Many visitors to Mykonos aren't going so much for a cultural sightseeing experience but rather a relaxing day on the beach and party at night experience. Still, there are spots worth checking out and snapping a photo between busy days of basking in the sunshine and wild nights out.

Matoyianni Street – located in the center, this street is filled with designer stores, souvenir shops, and jewelers as well as several restaurants, bars and clubs offering a good time.
